

Another Strong Quake Hits Jittery San Francisco

Vast Toll Of Damage Increased

New Temblor Breaks Gas Main, Starts Blaze

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Another strong temblor shook earthquake jittery San Francisco early today, adding to the vast toll of property damage, fires and frightened residents.

The latest shock, which struck San Francisco at 12:13 a.m. and was the third strongest of the more than 50 which have rocked the Bay Area since early Friday, apparently caused a three alarm apartment house fire.

THE 50 SCANTILY clad tenants of the three-story building fled to the street while firemen extinguished the blaze. Within a half an hour they were back in the frame structure, fearing only another jolt.

The fire was caused by a gas line broken during the quake six minutes earlier.

DAMAGE WAS EXPECTED to run into the millions from the more than 50 minor and serious shocks. However, an accurate figure will probably take weeks to determine.

Highway damage in one 400 foot area along Lake Merced was estimated by the county road department at $30,000. Throughout San Francisco and Daly City foundations were cracked, heirlooms smashed.

IN DALY CITY, a three-month-old boy barely missed death when his grandmother wheeled him from in front of the fireplace in the family home. Five minutes later it collapsed.

In all, some 31 persons have been treated for minor injuries. Miraculously, there were no serious injuries or deaths. Most serious was a woman with a fractured foot.

MEANWHILE, THE fire department urged all residents to check for gas leaks, cracks in chimney flues and broken water lines.

The smallest discernible gas or water leak must be reported and repaired immediately, the department said.

THE LATEST TEMBLOR shook buildings at 12:13 a.m. PST, and registered a magnitude of 4.25 on the Richter scale of 10. The strongest quake Friday registered a magnitude of 5.5 on the Richter scale, which measures the force of earthquakes.

Friday's violent upheavals, worst since 1906, began after a shift in the San Andreas fault, a crack in the earth's crust beneath San Francisco.

A SERIES of small shocks began at 9:30 a.m., topped by a vicious and sustained 5.5 temblor shortly before noon. Skyscrapers whipped back and forth as panicked office workers fled into the streets.

In the residential section of the city near the ocean, where the quake centered, houses twisted on their foundations, gas and water lines burst, and sections of the scenic coastal highway dropped into the Pacific.

FHA, Mortgage Loans to Be Realtors Topic

F.H.A. and mortgage loans as they affect the desert will be the subject of a talk by Ted Pearson at the weekly breakfast meeting of the Cathedral City Real Estate Association.

The meeting will be held at 8 a.m. Tuesday, at the Wonder Palms Hotel, according to Paul Clark, president of the association.

Chamber to Move To New Quarters

Chamber of Commerce manager Jimmy Cooper has mapped out a busy weekend for all departments of the chamber. In addition to dispensing tourist information and assisting visitors to the Village in locating accommodations, the staff will be engaged in moving to temporary quarters at 137 North Palm Canyon Drive.

The change in location to the building on the Desert Inn grounds, formerly occupied by Denslow's, is to permit the clearing of the present site at 190 West Amado Road for the erection of the new Chamber of Commerce building.

COOPER STATED, "We are very grateful to the owners of the Desert Inn for providing the DESERT CIRCUS FUN sponsors Bill Bronstein, of the JayCees, and Nancy Esbitt, representing the JayCees, ready posters for the big circus carnival running from March 27 through 31 in the Polo Grounds ball park. The Junior Chambers, as carnival sponsors, are handling ticket sales to the fun park, which features adult and children's rides, games and continuous shows. (Desert Sun Photo).

Carnival, Animal Show to Be Features of Desert Circus

Fun'll be popping for five nights and two afternoons at the Polo Grounds in Palm Springs when the 21st Annual Desert Circus gets underway on March 27 through the 31.

In the ball park area the Pan American Carnival, sponsored by the Jaycees and Jayettes and chairmanned by Bill Bronstein and Marcia Esbitt, each night at 6:30 o'clock will open its gates to young and old.

THERE WILL BE six major rides for adults and children and six minor rides for the young fry. In addition there will be a Midway of more than 20 stands and concessions.

In the Rodeo Arena the Gene Holter Animal show will present some unusual attractions. There will be trained elephants, buffalo, a zonkey; yes, it's a cross of zebra and donkey, and for additional excitement camel and ostrich races will intersperse the regular animal acts.

LOCAL RESIDENTS have signified their willingness to sit behind the ostriches in the two-wheel sukies and have the ride of their lifetime, to quote from advance publicity.

On Saturday and Sunday afternoons the Polo Grounds gates will open at 1 o'clock with the shows and attractions continuing until 10:30. On both these afternoons round-robin polo matches also will be played.

Price of admission to both areas is 90 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The price of the carnival rides is extra.

Auditorium Lack Blocks Meeting Of State Group

State Real Estate Association officials would like to hold a major convention in Palm Springs, but are unable to do so because of lack of an auditorium to accommodate the delegate meetings.

Mike Jekyll reported to Palm Springs Real Estate Board members at their monthly meeting at the American Legion hall.

Jekyll said that top officials had expressed the desire to meet in the Village, while he was attending the recent association meeting in Coronado.

The Palm Springs Board recently urged city officials to take action on an auditorium, proposing that O'Donnell Golf Club facilities be re-occupied if possible, after an 18-hole municipal golf course was constructed, for an auditorium site, off-street parking, and park purposes.

ELKO, Nev. (AP) — The three-story Stockmen's Hotel, one of three major hostleries in this eastern Nevada city, was leveled by fire Friday night in the worst blaze in the city's history. Damage was estimated at $1,250,000.

Ernest Grill, 98 Resident Here 29 Years, Dies

Ernest Grill, 98, 925 Avenida Palmeras, and for over 29 years a resident of Palm Springs, died last night at his home following an illness of some time.

A native of Linneus, Mo., he was a resident of California for 35 years and a retired lumberman. For 33 years he was a member of the El Jebel Temple of the Masonic Lodge in Denver, Colorado, and three years ago was presented with a fifty-year certificate by the Palm Springs Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by a son, Ernest Grill, Jr., of San Jacinto; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Becker of Ames, Iowa, and Mrs. Margaret Osborn of Washington, D. C.; a niece, Mrs. Almo Brown of Ashville, N. C.; seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday from Wiefels and Son Chapel with the Rev. William Blanton of St. Paul's in the Desert officiating. Private interment services will be held at Inglewood Park Cemetery Tuesday, with Wiefels and Son Mortuary in charge.

Egypt Offers New Suez Canal Plan

Falls Far Short Of Guarantees Asked by Users

By UNITED PRESS
Egypt today was reported to have proposed a Suez Canal plan calling for a "Users' Association" of private shipping and oil companies to help plan the development of the disputed waterway.

Informed sources in Cairo told United Press the plan was being outlined by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld in crucial negotiations today on a Nile River island.

DISCLOSURE of the plan came as the Egyptian Suez Canal authority announced that ships as big as 2,500 tons could use the waterway, as of Sunday. The previous top limit was 2,000 tons. The canal is scheduled to be cleared for all shipping in about three weeks.

The proposal, as reported by the Cairo sources, appeared to fall far short of the international guarantees demanded by the major Western canal users.

UNDER THE REPORTED plan, Egypt would pledge, in writing to set aside a certain percentage of shipping tolls to develop the canal. But the sources said Egypt would insist on full authority over canal operations, and would not agree to share control of funds for canal development.

The reported plan ruled out any users' association such as has been formed by 14 Western governments.

Instead, an association of interested private parties whose firms use the canal could form a committee to consult with the Egyptian Suez Canal authority on canal development plans, the sources said.

IN ADDITION, Egypt would be willing to let any disputes on Suez development be submitted to arbitration by "experts" but not by governments or "political bodies" like the U. N.

It was indicated strongly however that Egypt would continue to bar Israeli ships from the canal.

THE WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Sunny through Sunday. Gusty northerly winds in Colorado River Valley early tonight. Warmer days but continued cool tonight. High today 58-70 in upper valleys, 70-80 in lower valleys.

Yesterday's high was 72, low, 49.

Million British Workers Out On Strike

Railway Strike Averted; Others Refuse Offer

LONDON (AP) — One million British engineering industry workers walked out today in the first wave of a series of "snowball strikes" just as hopes rose for settlement of another walkout by 200,000 shipyard workers.

Leaders of 40 engineering unions warned that unless there is a settlement of their demands for a 10 per cent pay increase, they will extend the engineering strike to include 3,000,000 workers by April 16.

THE NEW WALKOUT began after a substantial pay raise headed off a railway strike and labor officials predicted that Britain's worst labor crisis in 30 years would end next week.

The engineering workers are members of the confederation of shipbuilding and engineering unions whose shipyard walkout went into its second week today.

Both the shipbuilders and engineering factory workers are asking 10 per cent wage increase.

THOUSANDS of engineering workers who are on a five-day work week jumped the gun and began their strike Friday, but the effects of today's call-out will not be felt completely until Monday.

The threatened railroad strike was averted when the nationalized British Transport Commission agreed Friday to grant a five per cent pay raise — half what they asked.

Dockworkers at Southampton, who struck because Royal Navy tugs helped get the liner Queen Mary on its way to New York Wednesday decided to go back to work.

Negotiations were scheduled to start Monday in a shipyard strike which started seven days ago and involves some 200,000 workers.

Quintuplets Born Prematurely, All Die After Birth

ROOSENDAL, Holland (AP) — Quintuplets were born prematurely here today to a 28-year-old Dutch housewife, but all of the babies died within six hours.

The quint, three boys and two girls, were born to Mrs. Cornelia van Hassel-Heynen. The mother was reported to be in good condition.

VIVACIOUS ROBERTA LINN, rapidly-rising singing star of radio, television and night club fame, will be making her second appearance Saturday, April 13, when she appears on the eighth annual Police Show and Dance in the high school "quad." Other headliners will include Frank Sinatra, Tony Martin, Patti Page, Ginny Sims, Eddie Cantor, Jimmy Van Heusen, Comic Ukie Sherin and the celebrated band of Skinnay Ennis. Tickets go on sale today with reserved seats available at the police department. Seating will be provided for 4,000 persons.

Planners to Hold Four Hearings On Desert Area

Four public hearings affecting the desert area are scheduled to come up before the County Planning Commission Tuesday following its joint meeting with the Board of Supervisors in the morning.

At 2 p.m., a hearing on a trailer park located east of Palm Canyon Drive and about 2,000 feet south of the city limits of Palm Springs will be held. Jack M. and Lucetta B. Boyer are the petitioners.

This case will be followed at half-hour intervals by a hearing for a variance for N. N. Herbert for single family apartments and hotel in the Tamarisk Country Club area; a trailer park hearing in the India area located west of Clinton Street and south of 44th avenue, an interim zone request by Gladys W. Fulton; and, a variance hearing on the reduction of lot area located northwest of "E" and Glenn street in Cathedral City and owned by Richard B. Kite.

New Hearing To Be Set for Track Meeting

On a recommendation of Riverside County Counsel Ray Sullivan, the Board of Supervisors will set a hearing Monday on the application of the Desert Turf Club for a permit to establish a quarterhorse race track at Rancho Mirage.

The matter, which for the past two years has been through the high courts of the state, was handed back to the Board of Supervisors early this month by the State Supreme Court.

In other desert area matters before the board Monday, there is a recommendation for extension of the agreement on Cathedral Canyon Heights in Cathedral City and a recommendation of the Traffic Committee to restrict speed on Pierson Boulevard in Desert Hot Springs.

Fire Causes $350 Damage to Home

Fire last night blazed through the living room in the home of David Knox, 70-155 Avenue 39, Palm Valley.

State Forestry fire fighters doused the blaze before it caused more than $350 damage to a divan, wall and chair. The Knox family was away at the movies at the time of the fire.

Beck to Be Questioned On Tuesday

Kennedy Hints Of Disclosures On Transactions

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate Rackets Committee spokesman said today Teamster President Dave Beck's alleged "questionable use" of $270,000 in union funds is "by no means the end of the picture."

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the committee also has information "about certain other transactions" between Beck's union and companies that Beck controls.

HE SAID THE committee will question Beck about both the $270,000 and the "other transactions" when he appears before it next week or at a later date. Beck has promised to appear Tuesday with his financial records.

Kennedy hinted at Beck's "other transactions" as Teamster leaders in St. Louis condemned the committee for using "sneaky tactics." They also accused the committee of using the press for "prejudging" the union — largest in the nation.

KENNEDY SAID Friday shortly before the Rackets Committee wound up its sensational first series of hearings that Beck took at least $270,000 from the union "and used it for his personal benefit" between 1948 and the first three months of 1953.

"This questionable use of funds we discussed in the hearing is by no means the end of the picture on Mr. Beck," he said.

The $270,000 which Beck allegedly took for her personal use was part of $709,420 in West Coast Teamster funds which the committee said was lost, misappropriated, unaccounted for or spent in "questionable" ways.

SUN CLASSIFIEDS PAY, IN EVERY WAY, EVERY DAY

Even out-of-towners find Desert Sun Classifieds a speedy, efficient way of selling merchandise.

Take the case of M. J. Hilliard, of Pacific Palisades, who sought a buyer for his year-old trailer. Hilliard turned to the Sun Classifieds columns and sold his trailer the day of publication.

His ad read: "45', 2 bedroom 1956 Universal — custom furnishing and fixtures — full carpeting — air cooler, dishwasher, large awning. Beautifully landscaped lot at Blue Skies. Over $5,500 recently invested! Must sacrifice for $3,650."

For effective proof, try a Sun Ad yourself, and enjoy the "excellent results" reported by Hilliard. Call 5005, The Desert Sun, and ask for "CLASSIFIED"

COMMUNITY CHURCH of Palm Springs will celebrate the 40th anniversary of its organization at a special event at the church next Wednesday evening at 7:30, and three charter members will be among those meeting for the occasion—Mrs. Steve Vidonics, right, Zaddie Bunker and Carl Lykken.

THE BUSIEST MADCAPS in show business are three young men known as the Frantics, so the critics say. Now appearing at the Palm House, the Frantics—Frankie Arnolds, Herb Brown and Morty Reed—will continue to offer their triple-threat program of songs, music and comedy until March 27. Also featured in the Palm House show is Jill Adams.

Forward in Faith Building Fund Drive to Start Tonight

The Forward in Faith campaign of the Community Church will get under way with a kick-off meeting Saturday evening at 7:07 p.m. in the social hall of the church. Fay Brainard general chairman reported that 120 workers had attended training meetings during the past week.

The drive is being conducted to underwrite the cost of a new sanctuary, estimated at a cost of $350,000 including furnishing. It is understood that the church contemplates construction on property they now own on Cahulla and Baristo.

The Advance Gifts Committee under the chairmanship of Ray Lusby has been working during the past week and will report on progress to date at the kick-off meeting.

The arrangements for the Saturday meeting are under the direction of Mrs. Gordon Nicholson. Instead of the usual dinner the committee has decided to have a dessert meeting featuring pie, cake and ice cream.

The drive starts with this opening meeting and will be completed by April 7. During that time members and constituents of the church will be contacted for pledges covering 156 weeks or four income tax years.

Bulletins Posted At CC Library

Information and bulletins on civil service examinations are posted on the board at the Cathedral City Library.

Also available are income tax forms. The library is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Two Desert Circus Youth Dances Planned

Two Desert Circus dances have been planned for the high school and junior high groups at the Youth Center on Belardo Road, according to director Carl Plate and chairman Melinda Hough.

On Friday night, March 29, there will be a warm-up dance from 8 to 10:30 o'clock. Members of the Earle C. Anthony Boys Band will play for dancing and there will be a small donation charge of 25 cents per person.

On Saturday night, March 30, from 8 until 10:30, the Tennage Circus dance will take place, with some good rock and roll music provided by Pat DeBellis' band from San Bernardino who will also provide the vocalizing. There will be refreshments and an admission donation of 75 cents per person.

Goldberg Buys New Ranch Land

Hotelman George E. Goldberg, owner of Palm Desert's G Bar G Ranch, has purchased an additional 100 acres adjoining the ranch property and has taken over the Pine Meadows Carter Ranch.

Goldberg, developer of Ramon Rise Estates, plans to cultivate alfalfa on his new land. Fifty acres of the land were purchased from Jack Boyer and 50 from Palmer Nicholls.

Goldberg also owns a home in Palm Springs.

Ransom Opens Area Office

Ransom Realty Corporation has opened a new branch office in the "club area," encompassing the area between Cathedral City and Indio's west city limits.

The office, managed by Stanley H. Brownlee, is located on Wonder Palms Road.

Brownlee will be assisted by Ted Marshall. Both men are area home owners.

The new office was created because of rapid development and firm establishment of the club area, Ransom officials said.

Cancer Campaign Slow Due Many Drives, Appeal Made

The Palm Springs Unit of the American Cancer Society wishes to express its regrets, that, due to the limited season, locally, fund raising campaigns must overlap, one with another.

In making this announcement, C. Ronald Ellis, Cancer Crusade chairman for the Palm Springs Unit, stated that he is most grateful for the response of the people of this community, but he added, "The campaign is not up to expectations. All who have not sent in their contributions are urged to do so, so that the crusade can be completed on schedule. All moneys are used to further the Society's program of research, education and service.

"FORTY MILLION Americans, now living, will some day have cancer, according to reports we receive. One-third of these are now being cured, but two-thirds could be cured if everyone learned the Seven Danger Signals of early cancer."

The American Cancer Society is attempting, through its combined crusade for funds and educational program, to bring the knowledge of these danger signals to the attention of every American. "RESEARCH, THE most important aspect of our program, receives the lion's share of every contributed dollar," stated Ellis, "and through research, someday must come our answer to cancer. "The alarming death rate of young children to cancer must be checked. It depends on you and your dedicated, dollars. Please send your contributions to The American Cancer Society, Francis Crocker, treasurer, 168 East Andreas Road, Palm Springs."

Maritime School Applications Must Be in by April 5

Candidates are now being selected for admission to the Maritime Academy, Sen. Nelson Dilworth reported today.

One candidate from Riverside County will be selected from applicants nominated by Senator Dilworth.

The academy is a college level state school and prepares graduates for employment as officers on merchant vessels. The academy prepares students for posts as navigators, engineers, deck officers and other careers.

Applications must be sent to Sen. Nelson Dilworth, the Senate, State Capitol, Sacramento, by April 5.

Hinton to Sing Folk Songs for Children Here

Palm Springs children are invited to hear Sam Hinton, folk singer and guitarist, tomorrow morning, Saturday, in the patio of Welwood Murry Memorial Library. The program will begin at 10:30, and will be free.

Hinton appears under the joint sponsorship of the Library and the Palm Springs Music Society. His program will be devoted to folk songs children love. Many youngsters are already familiar with Hinton's art through his records for Decca.

Adults who also wish to hear Hinton will have an opportunity to do so on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. when he will appear through the courtesy of the Desert Museum at the Frances Stevens School.

Cathedral City

By JEAN PATANE

Mrs. Francine Melrose who was visiting with her mother, Mrs. Emma Hammill, for the past two months, left last week for her home in Martin City, Mont.

A picnic lunch at Tamarisk Park in Palm Springs celebrated the birthdays of Chuck and Cici Manthey, 10 and 7, whose birthdays are on the same day. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Manthey of City Auto Service. The white frosted cake was beautifully decorated with red roses and the greeting "Happy Birthday Chuck and Cici."

Joining in the double celebration were Melinda, Marcey, Diana Neil, Debbie Bronstein, Suzanne and Joanne Ekins and Phyllis Ortega. Tommy and Johnny Svenneby, Scott Groshong, Peter Sandoval, Mike Macey and Bobby Wilde. Also their cousins from Whittier, Barney Julie and Lisa Heyer.

Here from San Mateo visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Day were their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Donald Hammack and Miss Betsy Hammack.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rozboski, apple ranchers of Paradise, Calif., paid a surprise visit to Mrs. Ed Donahue, who they hadn't seen in more than five years.

After a brief desert vacation at the Grandview Court, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooker returned to their home in Portland, Ore. Still delighting in desert relaxation are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil DeTracey, here from their home in Campbell, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gessner left last week for their home in Sacramento where Mr. Gessner is captain of the Police Department, following a two-week desert vacation. Frequent winter guests at Grandview Court were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holmes here from their home in Tacoma, Wash.

Too Late For Him

SHELBURNE, Mass. — Less than an hour after tree warden George Vickerson convinced the town meeting that the tree warden's salary should be raised from $200 to $500 a year, he was defeated for re-election by Reuben L. Stacy, 310 to 158.

YOU CAN NOW CALL it Pearl Springs. Long noted for its bountiful minks and Cadillacs, Palm Springs is now equally known for its pearls. This is mainly because of the fabulous pearl collection former movie actress Andrea Leeds, wife of Sportsman Bob Howard, is displaying at her Howard Manor and South Palm Canyon shops. Andrea, shown above weighing some of her rare pearl treasures, visited such faraway places as the fisheries of Japan to select the cream of the world's pearl crop. To make room for the gems she will collect on her annual world tour this summer, Andrea is currently conducting a mammoth Easter Pearl Sale at both of her shops.

Dr. Mark Carpenter to Be Religious Science Speaker

The Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs, Dr. Irma Glen, Minister, announces the Rev. Dr. Mark Carpenter, Administrator of Affiliated Churches at Los Angeles, as guest speaker Sunday, at 10:45 a.m. at the El Paseo Theater, 810 North Palm Canyon Drive.

"Poise and Power" is to be Dr. Carpenter's subject. The scriptural text is from II Timothy: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear but of power and of love, and of a sound mind."

The correlative passage from the Science of Mind textbook by Dr. Ernest Holmes reads, "Through spiritual discernment we see that we have within us a power which is greater than anything we shall ever contact; a power that can overcome every obstacle in our experience and set us safe, satisfied, and at peace, healed and prosperous in a new light and a new life. 'If God be for us who can be against us?'" Miss Elaine Noble, coloratura soprano, will be the featured soloist, and Dr. Glen will present her usual offering of organ music and meditation to open the services. Junior Church convenes simultaneously in the same building. Here infants up to teenagers are taught the principles of Truth as taught by Christ Jesus. All young people are invited to attend. The Junior Church is under the direction of Larry and Rhodame Foy.

The midweek meeting of the Church is held at 8 p.m. on Thursdays at the home of the Minister, 1110 Buena Vista Drive. An open class on Meditation, Its Theory and Practice, is being given this month.

LARRY FREE who with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Free, has spent several winters in Cathedral City is pictured with his hobby display. Eleven-year-old Larry is a Cub Scout in Den 5 and became interested in making tie slides as a den project. Taking it from there he started on baroque gem jewelry and has had displays at the Desert Museum. In just a few months Larry has completed the achievements and earned his Bear and Lion badges and fifteen arrow points. In a few weeks the Frees will leave for Lake Tahoe where they own and operate "The Dunes," the well known resort Mr. and Mrs. Free built ten years ago. (Ellis Photo).

Samuel Silverstein Honored by Army

Samuel Silverstein, Augusta, Ga., business man, now constructing with his partners, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smilen, the new addition to the El Cortes Motel, received an added honor to his distinguished Army career.

Silverstein received an invitation from Wilbur Brucker, Secretary of the Army, to attend the annual presentation of the Robert Patterson Memorial Award in Washington, D. C. recently.

This award is given the outstanding graduate of the Infantry Officer's Candidate School. Silverstein and four other men under Patterson's command were instrumental in institution of the Memorial award.

UNITED APPEAL MIGHT BE THE ANSWER

More complaints are being heard this year about the number of fund drives being conducted in Palm Springs. Every community, of course, has them but we seem to get so many all at once. The overlapping of several campaigns has become quite a problem. There have been ten different appeals all going on at the same time. All of them suffer to some extent.

The subject was discussed at considerable length at the recent meeting of the Mayor's Co-ordinating Council. While no conclusion was reached, the plan of having one campaign in which all of the voluntary appeals would be combined was discussed. This method has been adopted with success by many cities—including Riverside.

It is nothing new and the idea has been proposed here before. Several meetings were held but too many difficulties were encountered to carry out the plan. Some of the national organizations—such as the American Red Cross—do not favor joining a group appeal because of their membership aspect.

Community Chest Suffers

One of the reasons why the Palm Springs Community Chest has encountered difficulties in recent years is because it includes only a limited number of agencies. All of them are local but the Chest does not include all of the local groups which conduct fund-raising drives. Although it comprises seven local agencies, the Chest is just one of scores of other appeals. It suffers accordingly. Because the Chest agencies have to depend entirely on contributions from local residents, it should be given first consideration. But it gets lost in the overlapping appeals of other organizations.

It will be difficult to work out a United Appeal plan in Palm Springs but it is certainly worth another effort. Other communities encountered similar problems and overcame them. The fact that one effort failed doesn't mean that another try is bound to fail.

Study Should Be Made

The best approach would be for a local committee to study the ways and means by which other communities—like Riverside—where the residents and various agencies became sold on the idea. It would not be difficult to gather this information.

A tabulation of all the campaigns conducted here during the winter months should be made first and representatives of as many of the organizations as possible invited to join in the discussion. Any such plan would have to have the whole-hearted support of the community and its civic leaders in order to succeed.

It's worth another try.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Senior Statesman

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senator Styles Bridges, senior Republican member of the upper house and a 20-year man on the Appropriations committee, has heaved both these responsibilities to his well-knit shoulders and is making tracks toward two major accomplishments at this session, to wit:

1. Supplying the adhesion of good fellowship to the sour-puss and prima-donna elements of the 47-member minority.

2. Inserting a stout pair of molars, which may grind exceedingly fine, into the toothless small talk about cutting the Federal Budget.

THE NEW HAMPSHIREMAN'S work as a rally-round man for GOP Senators is well known in the inner circles, but there is a reason of delicacy why it seldom gets out. The Democrats have their versatile leader in Senator Lyndon Johnson who doubles as king-of-the-cloakroom and as formal party spokesman.

But the Republican floor leader is Senator Bill Knowland who is a tremendous moral force and an intrepid personality but not a jollifier or humorist by any stretch of the terms. Styles Bridges supplies the camaraderie and personal touch for the Republicans.

This isn't easy to do with the GOP in its mad dash to "go modern." One of the Republicans' recent acquisitions is Senator Jacob (Jack) Javits of New York, a left-winger with all the stripes of a Democrat but bearing the credentials of a liberal Republican. Another is Senator Thurston Morton of Kentucky, who left a post in the State Department to run as an Eisenhower Republican.

BOTH THESE NEWCOMERS have been paying their respects to Senator Bridges and asking his advice as to when to speak and what in general to do. Not every Old Guardsmen, as Bridges unapologetically is, could make it easy and natural for these high-strung moderns to feel at home in the GOP.

Bridges moves with the same avuncular confidence among the anti-like Republicans. He has several times picked up crucial votes for the Administration in the right wing environs where Jennings speak only to McCarthy and McCarthy only to one another. Despite his Yankee twang, Bridges knows how to use the fond profanity and good-natured jibes with which Southern leaders call upon their menfolk to close ranks.

AS CHAIRMAN OF the Republican Policy committee, Bridges has a good deal to do with the flow of legislation and the attitude of Congressional Republicans toward the White House. He initiated the Tuesday luncheons of GOP Senators which follow the President's weekly meeting with Capitol Hill leaders.

This affair has provided a chance for many back-benchers to hear more than they otherwise would from a President whom they regard as very remote. Bridges and Knowland have both gone to their wits' ends to sell Administration programs to their dubious and often hostile colleagues.

But the President's $72 billion Budget has stretched these good relations to the breaking point. Bridges is getting a spring flood of letters from people who don't ordinarily concern themselves with Federal expenditures. College presidents and Labor leaders are joining sentiments with business leaders.

THEIR COMMON theme is that

MINORITY GROUPS

(Waltersboro, S. C., Press and Standard)

We hate to hear any speaker, or an individual, damn minority groups for any condition which might arise. What the individual who does forgets is what this country is made up of minority groups, that this country's greatness has stemmed from the fact that minority groups have been working together for the good of the whole.

PEACE SOLUTION

(Aztec, N. M., Independent-Review)

Maybe if we ignored the civilized peoples of the earth like we do the uncivilized people we would have no more trouble with the civilized than we do with the uncivilized.

'It's Still Going Boom—Boom—Boom'

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

It isn't what's inside your head that lands you that fat job. It's what's outside and how it looks. So hide that hairless knob.

According to a United Press dispatch from New York, the color of a man's hair or the lack of any, may decide whether he will get that good job.

THE HAIR that's turned to silver, once a man's mark of distinction, according to the UP, is now the mark of his age with the personnel department.

So, leaders of the nation's men's grooming business say men are spending more time and money on their appearance.

They are spending as much time in barber shops as women do in beauty parlors.

GREY MEN turn young by dyeing. The bald ones recapture their youth with hair pieces. The toupe business is booming.

Men with plenty of hair but all of it straight, are getting permanents.

This rash of new business for the beauty parlor business does not mean that men are as vain as women, although some women insist that this is so.

OTHER AUTHORITIES deny this. They claim that the current boom in the grooming business has an economic basis.

"Job competition is what's doing it," they aver.

The bald-headed or grey-haired man hasn't as much chance as the man with the well-covered pate if the covering looks good and is of the right shade.

Move over, mama, papa wants to get under that drier.

STYLES IN MUSIC change rapidly. The current rage for Calypso seems to have landed Elvis on his pelvis. He seems to be going the way of Davey Crockett. Sitting here, however, whacking the daylight out of this old typewriter to the accompaniment of Cliff Miller and his brisk jockeying on KDES, there's one style that hasn't changed for almost 40 years.

And that's the good old ballads of the 20s and 30s with some even earlier.

So we'll probably hear "Stardust," "Begin the Beguine" and that brand of tuneful music long after Elvis' sideburns have turned to silver.

CHIEF OF POLICE A. G. Kettmann was just in with a copy of the 1956 annual report of the California Highway Patrol. It carries an answer for those people who are not unduly alarmed by the increase in traffic accidents in the state. Those people who shrug off the alarming statistics with the explanation: "That's due to the great increase in automobiles on the highways."

The CHP says, it isn't. Registration of new cars was up 6.2 per cent in 1956. Fatal accidents increased 10 per cent.

The report revealed that during 1956, one person died as result of traffic injuries every two hours and 15 minutes.

Note, however, that in Palm Springs the traffic toll is lessening.

Getting up early in the morning is simple says Josh Jenkins. Just a question of mind over mattress.

INEZ ROBB:

Poor Men

Well, sir, no one is such an ardent champion of equal rights for men as I, and the record proves it. No one wants to see them get their just dues more than I. Honestly.

But sometimes the boys do protest too much. I have just finished reading another of those hackneyed magazine pieces by a boy-author harping on a theme that was decrepit when I was cutting my eyeteeth on a typewriter.

Once more another boy-author is lamenting the passing of the all-male sanctuary, such as the barber shop, the saloon and now the strict, 100 per cent masculine and all-male club. He cries piteously against the rude invasion of these once-for-men-only premises by that bold subversive, the female of the species.

THE CURRENT TORRENT of tears is based on the fact that recently the Lambs Club in New York City, for 82 years a sanctuary for successful actors, opened its dining room to women. We can now dine there with such members as (for shame!) desire female society when partaking of vittles.

The premise of the boy-author is that women somehow, some way stormed the doors of the Lambs in such assault waves as to breach the premises. One gets a picture, from the author's prose, of determined, deadly Amazons finally having their way with the club, if not its members.

PSHAW!—TO INVOKE a favorite Lambs playwright—nothing could be further from the truth. The hard fact is that the Lambs was breached from within. Like other masculine clubs that now permit members to invite women to dine within their sacred groves, the Lambs yielded to red ink.

Alas, it was decided to admit women as an economic necessity, not as a romantic must of an irresistible attraction. Women are just a gimmick to keep the dining room in the black. I hate to admit it, but the Lambs' decision was a dollars-and-cents and not a hearts-and-flowers proposition, as is true of other once all-male hangouts.

FOR YEARS, ALL the Lambs who could get around under their own steam had been dining elsewhere at eventide with bewitching companions of the opposite sex. But it required what Bernard Sobel, historian of the theatrical world and one-time associate of the late Flo Ziegfeld, calls "a violent battle with the wheel-chair brigade" for financial sense to prevail and for the club to open its dining room to women guests.

The bar and the famous Bull Pen is still for men only, and it is there where old codgers can sit and glower at brazen men dining with women.

THE REVOLUTION from within was led by William Gaxton, shepherd of the Lambs, ably supported by Walter Greaza, Ed Begley, Mickey Alpert, Jimmy Gleason, Fred Waring, Conrad Nagel and Leo Carrillo. It was they, not the ladies, who victoriously assaulted tradition from within and carried the day in the interest of solvency and a balanced budget.

The boy-author mentioned above has a nice article, but it is half fiction, half moonshine. Men can't get along with women and don't want to get along without 'em. And it probably is no consolation to them that Chekhov, my favorite Russian author, once said, "Women, deprived of the company of men, pine; men, deprived of the company of woman, become stupid."

EARL WILSON:

Young Lovers

NEW YORK—Beautiful Shirley Jones and her handsome husband, Jack Cassidy—married for seven long months—sat in a booth at the Carnegie Hall Tavern contemplating dinner... and spoke of their foreseeable future—together.

"Shirley will continue working—up to a point," Jack said.

"How long do you mean by that?" I asked, concerning the lovely blonde whom Rodgers & Hammerstein starred in their movie, "Oklahoma!" Was she retiring already?

"Oh, another year." He lit a cigarette.

"WE CAN'T REALLY set a time!" spoke up Shirley, the pride of Smithton, Pa.

"I think it depends on when she's going to have a baby." The young bridegroom smiled across at her. "You see, one day she's saying she wants to cook—and the next day she's saying 'I want that line!'"

It's, as somebody back in the Hoover Administration said, "an experiment noble in purpose." These two brilliant and beautiful performers hope that they can keep their marriage intact by working only together.

"Can two actors really do it?" I asked.

"We hope so," Shirley nodded.

"I LOVE WORKING with her!" Enthusiasm was in his voice. "We complement each other. It's like, if she were going to do another picture with Gordon McRae, it wouldn't do her any good. You don't grow working with the same person all the time. Anyway, this girl would rather have babies which I want her to do."

Interrupting himself, he produced a package. "I bought a couple goodies."

He opened it. "I have a friend of mine who makes these." It was a screwdriver with a flashlight attached. He held it out with pride.

"I BOUGHT SOME goodies, too." She opened a paper sack and brought forth two headbands. "I have to wear them since my hair's short."

"They're beautiful," I said.

"Were they expensive?"

"There's one trouble with her," the bridegroom declared. "She won't spend money for anything she's buying for herself."

I asked how they planned always to work together as actors. For he had mentioned a TV series he'd been invited to do as a result of being seen on the U.S. Steel TV show a week before.

"THEY'RE LOOKING for an unknown and there's nobody more unknown than I am," he explained. "It's a crime thing."

"This is just for him," Shirley said. "I want to do summer stock this summer but I won't do any if he's in California—unless I do it there."

"We might do night clubs," Jack shrugged. "There are no two singers around in our age group who do them like we do."

Jack suddenly looked at his bride. "What are you shaking your head like that for? Am I putting a crown on my head? I'm just honest."

SHIRLEY SMILED at her husband's confidence. Suddenly over the radio we heard a song that caught her ear.

"That's your record!" she exclaimed to him. It was, indeed, "My Romance."

"I'm big here at the Tavern," he laughed.

They've been appearing in "The Beggars' Opera," which they were co-starring in when they were married. Incurable romantic that I am, I asked to have the story told over.

"Shirley had completed the film 'Oklahoma,'" Jack reminisced. "We were rehearsing it to take to Paris for the 'Salute to France.'"

"I WAS TERRIBLY attracted to her the first time I spoke to her. She wasn't going to allow anything to happen."

"One night when we were rehearsing, Ma and Pa Jones were sitting there. Reuben Mamculian, the director, was giving us 'notes' on our performance."

"He said to us, 'You play those love scenes so believably. Of course, since you're married, Jack, I guess it means nothing.'"

"ALL PA AND MA Jones could see was the back of my neck and it got the same color as though I'd been in Jamaica six months."

"Anyway, in Paris, we were thrown together. We said we wouldn't see each other anymore. But how can you not see each other when you're kissing each other on the stage every night?"

We came back and I asked my wife for a divorce, which wasn't the first time...

That's how it happened. After "The Beggars' Opera," they go to Jamaica for a honeymoon—rather belated, but the first time they've had off.

"Every once in a while I check myself to see if I've blown my anniversary," he said. He hasn't so far.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Rock 'Rocky' in Test

HOLLYWOOD—Aspiring actors at 20th-TV's school are now required to study the screen test Rock Hudson made there seven years ago—as a prime example of how NOT to act!

Seven-year-old Patty Ann Garrity, who'll star in Desilu's new television series, "This Is Alice," signed a seven-year deal calling for $300 per telefilm the first year and, if all the options are lifted, shooting up to $600 per segment for the final year.

Jerry and Patti Lewis, who believe in looking "WAY ahead are already scouting for a Connecticut hideaway to live when Jerry stars in that B'way musical he has on his agenda for 1960!... Overheard on Bob Hope's set: "You look a million, sweetie—and I mean every day of it."

HONOLULU'S KGBB-TV voted "Gunsmoke" its favorite program so Jim Arnes aired over to the Blessed Isles to accept the award... Dan Duryea is digging deep to come up with a good nightclub act based on his "China Smith" TV character... because, if he can do it, there's $12,500 a week waiting for him at the Royal Nevada in Las Vegas.

Phyllis Kirk, who has turned up all over the TV dial at one time or t'other, says "The Loretta Young Show" and the now-departed "Four Star Playhouse" series are just about the only half hour telecasts she knows that have sufficient organization and preparation to lift them out of the abyss of mediocrity... Says Phyllis, who should know: "Most half-hour shows look as though they're off the top of the producer's head—and they are! It's impossible, I think, to tell a story with any guts in 30 minutes. I wish they'd chuck the whole half hour TV format out the window!"... But Phyllis, pet, think of all the actors that would put out of work.

LOOKS GOOD FOR renewal of "Zane Grey Theatre" May 1—so Dick Powell is already planning the plots for the next plateau... George Burns and Gracie Allen's telegram to Bob and Mary Cummings on the arrival of the fifth Cummings heir: "Now that you have a basketball team, how about filling up the bench?"

Julie London, Jack Webb's ex, and pianist conductor Bobby Troup tripped up their wisecrack Hollywood pale and did NOT tie the knot while Julie located in Tucson on the "Playhouse 90" production of "Without Incident"—but there WILL be a family-type wedding in Hollywood in June, the couple claims—plus a European honeymoon that'll go on & on & on & on.

Now that Charlie Van Doren has topped off the "21" peak, Lucy and Desi have their fingers crossed that the "I Love Lucy" teleratings will once again be cock o' the walk Monday nights.

ECONOMIC LAW: As rivalry between NBC-TV and CBS-TV increases—and wow, is it intense!—so, in all probability, will the quality of the shows we'll get from each camp... It's over between Procter & Gamble "The Jane Wyman Show" as of June 25. But if some other sponsor doesn't snap up this talented doll faster than you can turn your TV dial, my name is Mickey Rooney.

'Matter' Value Set as Science Sermon Sunday

Accepting and utilizing man's God-given dominion, material laws of sickness, sin and limitation are destroyed. This challenging fact will be brought out in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Matter" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text, which points to the main theme, is from Paul's letter to the Colossians (3:2): "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

Bible selections include these verses from Isaiah (33:20, 22), "Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities; thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. . . . For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us."

Mary Baker Eddy declares in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Every law of matter or the body, supposed to govern man, is rendered null and void by the law of Life, God" (p. 380).

The people of the United States have doubled their annual contributions for philanthropy in the past decade, giving an estimated $6,100,000,000 in 1956.

Hebrew Church Founder to Be Speaker Here

Dr. A. U. Michelson, founder and minister of the First Hebrew Christian Church of Los Angeles, and well-known for his nation-wide broadcasts of the "Hebrew Christian Hour" heard throughout the United States and Canada, will be in Palm Springs, this coming Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. and will speak at the Assembly of God Church, 1290 East Ramon Road. He will speak on "Is There Any Future for the Jews?"

Dr. Michelson has twice made extensive tours of Palestine and New State of Israel, and many countries in Europe, and will bring firsthand account of the conditions in that part of the world. He will tell of the development in Palestine and the unique position of the Jews today in relation to the present world crisis.

Formerly a judge and attorney in Germany, Dr. Michelson was reared in Orthodox Jewry, but later embraced Christianity. He will also tell his life's story, a heart-grIPPING tale of how he went through great spiritual struggle before he accepted the Christian faith.

Dr. Michelson is director of a world-wide missionary enterprise, with representatives in England, Australia, Germany, France, Palestine, and elsewhere. His dramatic presentation of candid eyewitness accounts of world conditions and his fervent evangelistic eloquence has drawn large numbers to hear him in many parts of the world. The meetings are open to the public.

BERRIEN SPRINGS, Mich. (AP)—It's now legal to drive a horse-drawn vehicle at more than five miles an hour in Berrien Springs. The city council amended a 30-year-old law, raising the village speed limit to 25 miles an hour.

RELIGIOUS SCIENCE
CHURCH OF RELIGIOUS SCIENCE OF PALM SPRINGS—Dr. Ernest Holmes, Founder, El Paseo Theater, 810 N. Palm Canyon Drive, 10:45 a.m. Sunday Service. Thursday evening 8 p.m. 1110 Buena Vista Drive.

Two Speakers Set at St. Paul's Next Tuesday

Tomorrow, the third Sunday in Lent, St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will hold the following services: Holy Communion at 8: Family Service and Church school, beginning in the church at 9:15 a.m.; Morning Prayer and sermon by the Rector at 11 a.m.

The High School Young People will meet in the parish hall at 7 p.m., tomorrow evening. Holy Communion is celebrated each Thursday at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's.

Two visiting ministers will be speakers at organizational meetings this week. On Tuesday, March 26, at 2:30 the Rev. Thomas R. Marshall, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Pomona, will be speaker at the second Guild Lenten Tea. Father Marshall is the executive secretary of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, and serves on the Bishop's Advisory Board for the Diocese of Los Angeles.

On Tuesday evening in the parish hall, the Rev. Edward Miller, Episcopal Chaplain at the University of California in Riverside, will be the guest speaker at the St. Paul's Men's Club monthly dinner meeting. Father Miller, originally from Canada and later New York State, has been a resident of Southern California approximately three years.

Last year more than 75,000 persons died of cancer who might have been saved by earlier diagnosis and treatment.

'Christ and Our Unbelief' to Be Community Sermon

"Christ and Our Unbelief" will be the subject of Dr. James Blackstone's message at the Community Church of Palm Springs for Sunday. This is the seventh in a series of sermons on "Jesus Christ Our Saviour, Teacher and Lord."

The Chancel Choir under the direction of Elmer Young will sing the anthem by Beethoven, "Come to Me," with Lois Lux at the organ. Mrs. Violet Watson will sing a soprano solo, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," for the Offertory.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL sessions are held at 9:30 with classes of instruction for all departments. At 11 there are classes for the cradle roll, Nursery and Beginners, a Children's Church in the Primary Departments and a Junior Church in the Junior Department. The Christian Endeavor societies are meeting at 6:15 at the church. The High school group meets in the church parlor and Junior High group meets in the Youth Chapel.

AT THE EVENING service James McManus is to bring a message on "God's Promises Through Prayer." The Junior Choir, the Choraleers, are bringing the special music and will sing the anthem "Building, Daily Building."

Noel Hendrickson will play a special piano number, "In a Mission Garden," for the offertory, and Michele Tomke, pianist, will play The Lost Chord for the Prelude. All are invited to come and worship.

Winning Children For Christ Plan Starts Sunday

The First Baptist Church in Thermal will launch an extensive "Winning the Children for Christ" program this Sunday. It will be inaugurated by the coming of Miss Florence E. Wanger, Western Area Director for the program. Miss Wanger will speak briefly in the Morning Worship at 11 a.m.

The "Winning the Children for Christ" program is an American Baptist program of evangelism for enlisting unreached children and their parents for Christ and the church. The concern of the program is to enlist these new families in the church of their choice.

Safety Slogan Set for Week

Safety slogan for students in the Palm Springs Unified School District next week will be "Snap door lock buttons when small children are riding in the car," according to George Bond, school safety director and superintendent of transportation.

Each week a different slogan is announced, to be repeated by students as they board buses en route to or from school.

The American Cancer Society conducts a three-pronged attack of research, education and service to cancer patients.

Jaycee-ettes Have Nomination Of New Officers

Nomination of officers and plans for the Carnival for Desert Circus week occupied Jaycee-ettes when they held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Norma Smith.

Nominated were: President, Pat Wahlberg, Flo Ambler, Chris Ranes, Eva Roach; vice president, Ruth Hayes, Eva Roach; secretary, Pat Wahlberg, Hortense Marquez, Chris Ranes; treasurer, Evelyn Schilling.

The election of officers will take place April 24. Barbara Harrison reported $33 from the bake sale held last Saturday. The Jaycee-ettes baked the cakes and the SFO (a community sorority) sold them.

A social evening followed with refreshments of fresh frozen peach sundaes and home made cup cakes served by the refreshment committee which consisted of Ruth Hayes, Eva Roach and Evelyn Schilling.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Posters are out... and Palm Springs' Desert Circus is coming to town next week... with a wonderful program of events that make it a fine time to invite those houseguests you've been meaning to ask down... The fun and action-packed week will include the biggest and best of Desert Circus parades (Did you know Liberace is riding on one of the floats?)... the Big Top Ball which promises to rate high in winter social events... the premiere showing of Randy Scott's newest film "The Tall T"... the Sheriff's Dance and a Teen Agers Dance... the hilarious Kangaroo Court... polo and carnival... and lots of other main line attractions... This will be a fun town for sure next week...

High Sheriff Ray Ryan, who's due in today, will entertain his deputies at luncheon at El Mirador on Tuesday... and on Wednesday night... before they go out on the town... the Sheriff and deputies will have a cocktail buffet at the Ranch Club... with Noel Clarke as their host...

The Big Top Ball, a colorful costume affair, that should pack the Chi Chi Starlite Room... is on Friday night... and will be complete with sidewalk barker and dancing girls... and the exterior of the Chi Chi will be decorated in the best tradition of the Big Top... according to co-chairmen Dorothy Salinger and Kay Morris...

Festivities get under way in the Starlite Room at 7:00... in an atmosphere of circus pennants, streamers and posters... and Liberace and his brother George head the floor show...

Bright-blooming Palm Springs hats will decorate the tables... and may be purchased by the merry-makers with the money going to charity... Two deluxe hats trimmed for Liberace and George, will be auctioned off, according to decorations chairman Julie Dunne and Gwyn Marcy...

Randolph Scott, Grand Marshall for Saturday's parade, will be among the celebrities present...

Among others with early reservations are... the Floyd Odiums, Phil Harris (he'll emcee the Kangaroo Court), George Wrights, Jack Kenastons, Co. Thorntons, William Maloufs... Harry Joe Browns ("The Tall T" is his production, and he arranged the Palm Springs showing)... Earl Hendersons, Ed McCoubrey, Mary Hurrell, Howard Morris...

Mel Eatons, Norman Waters, Lou Manseaus, Harrison Blighs... Emily DeWare, Milt and Maggie Hicks, Harold Hicks, Barney Hinkles... the Kent Hayes, Richard Snidemans, Mrs. Payne-Jennings... Both El Mirador Hotel and Thunderbird Country Club have arranged for tables...

Circus and western costumes will be mixed in the gay throng... and a prize for the best woman's costume has been donated by Andrea Leeds Howard... and a man's prize comes from Chuck Walters...

One of the big attractions of the fun-filled week... will be the premiere showing of Harry Joe Brown's "The Tall T"... with Randolph Scott and Maureen O'Sullivan... the two stars, to be here in person for the sunset premiere... which will be held at Earl Strobe's Plaza Theatre on Saturday evening at 6:30...

Flying down to Palm Springs for the premiere are such motion picture celebrities as... Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boone, Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard, Arthur Hunnicutt (he plays the heavy in the picture), Mr. and Mrs. John Farrow (Maureen O'Sullivan), Hank Silva and Mr. and Mrs. Skip Homeier. News reel cameramen will photograph the premiere... and Desert Circus co-chairmen Sam

Special Prayers To Be Offered For Persecuted

Special prayers will be offered and a day of fasting observed Saturday, March 30, by the Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventists for Christians who are being persecuted for their religious convictions in Colombia, South America.

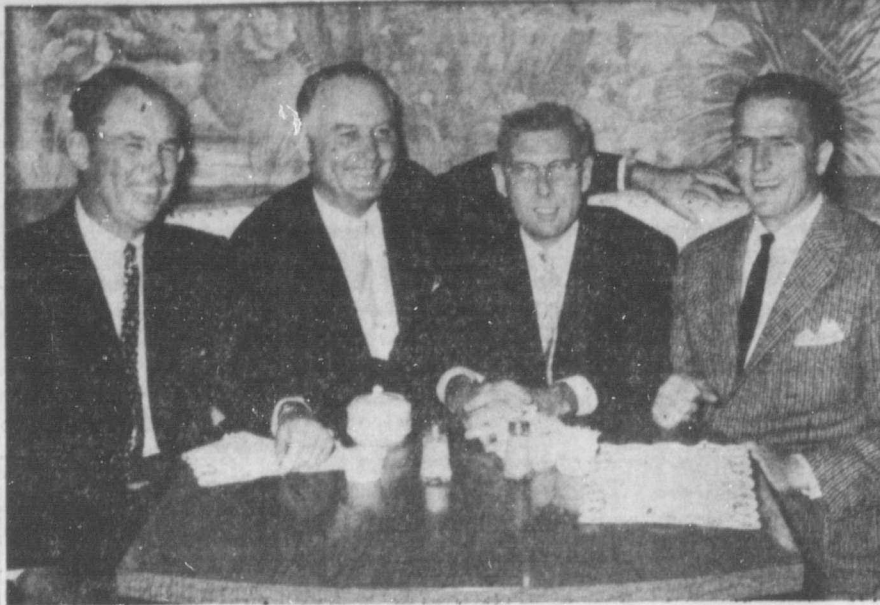

Pastor Duane Grimstad of the Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church, said special prayers would be offered at 11 o'clock worship services Saturday morning and at 3 p.m. prayer meeting "for fellow Christians who are passing through a very critical time."

PASTOR GRIMSTAD said the special services result from an appeal by Adventists World President R. R. Figuhr, Washington, D.C., stating that in Colombia, 10

Seventh-day Adventists alone died in 1956 because they would not recant their religious convictions. "Church members have been beaten to death, beheaded, and shot in their own backyards. Homes have been destroyed, churches burned and scores imprisoned," President Figuhr's message stated. "During the summer of 1956, a total of 197 Adventists were imprisoned."

THE MESSAGE received by the local church said that while persecution has been evident in Colombia for a number of years, "in recent months it has been increasing in severity." The message also called for prayer for Christians in other countries where religious restriction is common.

Pastor Grimstad said despite unprecedented persecution Christian activity grows in Colombia. Adventist membership in the South American country has quadrupled in the past few years with more than 1,000 baptisms in 1955, he said.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK. AP — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:
Adolph Rupp, the Kentucky basketball coach, used to complain that his "po' lil boys" were so used to walking on grass that the New York pavements ruined their feet and it made a terrific impression on Coach Bob Vanatta of Memphis State.

Thus, before bringing his quintet to New York where he led it all the way to today's National Invitational Tournament final against Bradley, Vanatta polled his squad and found out that only two of the boys ever had been to New York before. So he gave the team a two-day orientation session on "how to act in New York."

"YOU CAN WALK yourself right out of the tournament if you pound those pavements with too much sight-seeing," he warned.
So the Memphis scrappers stuck to their hotel rooms and rested—and win, lose or draw in this afternoon's final, as a reward they'll have tonight and all day Sunday for uninterrupted rubber-necking.
When Cuba's Isaac Logart and Philadelphia's Gil Turner meet in a 10-round welterweight bout at Madison Square Garden on Friday night, with Logart an 8 to 5 choice, it may be the last bout in the Manhattan palace of maul until September. The circus moves in after that for six weeks, followed by evangelist Billy Graham, who has the Garden for seven weeks with an additional two-month option.

SEATTLE WAS RUBBED out unexpectedly in the NIT tournament but its coach, John Castellani, must take down honors as the most uninhibited basketball coach of the year. On one occasion, he sat down on the rival bench and began discussing a referee's call with the amazed opposing coach. Another time, hearing catcalls from the gallery, he went up and sat with the heckling spectators, advising them:
"You must be seeing things from up here that I can't see down there."

His star, Elgin Baylor, has a nervous head tic when he plays basketball. Which caused Castellani to observe:
"Did you ever see an Elgin that didn't tick?"

Bradley Favored By Six Over MS

NEW YORK. AP — Bradley's bouncing Braves match their all-around finesse against Memphis State's "fire house" brigade today in the final of the National Invitational Basketball Tournament at Madison Square Garden.
Led by 6-foot-7 Barney Cable, Bradley reigned as a six-point favorite for the championship game, which will be nationally televised.

Braves Loose In Field, Held To Three Hits

Andreas Blanks Foe for Four Innings;
Teams Meet Today

Coach George Scholl's Palm Springs High School Indians made their baseball debut Friday afternoon at the Polo Grounds and booted away the game against the visiting Mary Star of the Sea team of San Pedro, 3 to 0.

All of the runs scored by the San Pedro nine were unearned and came off the deliveries of John Warren.

Both teams were unable to hit consistently and racked up only three each, but a loose defense by the Indians gave the San Pedro team the win.

John Andreas pitched four scoreless innings for the Braves and then Warren took over.

The two teams are scheduled to meet again today before the visitors return to the harbor.

Rate American Car Darkhorse In Sebring Field

SEBRING, Fla. AP—Cool-nerved drivers revved up red hot sports cars today for the start of the Sebring 12-hour Grand Prix, and for the first time an American factory car was given a dark-horse chance of winning.

Racing Secretary Reginald Smith and other observers forecast an all-out duel of screeching turns and roaring straightaways between the gleaming red Maseratis and Ferraris, both Italian-made cars. But the English Jaguars had to be reckoned with as well as the American Corvettes.
"The Jags will be right in there, but watch out for the Corvette team. That's the darkhorse," Smith said.

Seals Win Over Boston Red Sox

SAN FRANCISCO. AP — A crowd of 20,023 baseball fans, undaunted by earthquakes and threats of more temblors, turned out Friday night to watch their San Francisco Seals defeat the parent Boston Red Sox, 5-2, in an exhibition baseball game.

And if the restless San Andreas fault permits, at least that many more will turn out for today's game. The three-game series ends tomorrow.

Earl Wilson, who may become the first Negro to play for the Red Sox, sparked the Seals by allowing only two hits and one run in five innings. Seals catcher Eli Sadowski rapped out a single, a double and a triple off Boston pitching.

Basketball Coaches Talk Rule Changes

KANSAS CITY, Mo. AP—Debate is scheduled today by the National Association of Basketball Coaches on several minor rule-change recommendations.

After today's action, the coaches will submit their suggestions to the National Rules Committee which meets here Sunday to make official modifications.

IT'S A DIFFERENT uniform but the same guy—John Warren. Top scorer for the Indians in basketball, he's working out with the Braves baseballers. He is rated a consistent hitter. (Sun Photo by Chuck Grone).

Sir William, West's Top Candidate For Kentucky Derby, Breaks Down

SAN MATEO. AP — Sir William, the West's leading candidate for the Kentucky Derby, broke down during the feature race at Bay Meadows Friday. He may have to be destroyed.

Berrios Moves Nearer Crown

NEW YORK. AP — Little Miguel Berrios, brand new American featherweight champion and semi-finalist in the tourney for the vacant world crown, said today, "I must wear the beg title for my four keds."

Stocky, broad-shouldered Miguel attained his new prominence by chasing Brooklyn's speedy Carmelo Costa about Madison Square Garden's ring Friday night and flooring him once while enroute to a single-point, 12-round, split decision.

Each weighed 125 pounds, just one under the feather limit. Miguel was favored at 8-5.

Victory in the nationally televised and broadcast fight earned the 24-year-old Puerto Rican terrier the right to meet Hogan Kid Bassey of Nigeria, Africa, in the semi-final 12-round at Washington, D. C., April 26.

Later the Washington winner will fight Cherif Hamia of France, European champion, for the world title left vacant by Sandy Sadler's recent retirement.

THE TALKS between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan on Bermuda may be of greater significance but to baseball fans here is another meeting of two great powers—Stan (The Man) Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Ted (The Splendid Splinter) Williams. The great batsmen are shown chatting at Sarasota, Fla. (International)

Kansas Rated 10-Point Edge In Cage Final

Figure Chamberlain Will Be Too Much for North Carolina

By LYLE SCHWILLING
United Press Sports Writer
KANSAS CITY, Mo. AP—Odds-makers, figuring on Wilt Chamberlain's fabulous talent for scoring and rebounding, rate Kansas a 10-point favorite over North Carolina in tonight's NCAA title basketball game.

Kansas won its berth with an easy 80-55 win over San Francisco while North Carolina, ranked No. 1 in the nation, took a thrilling 74-70 win over Michigan State after three overtime periods.

San Francisco Coach Phil Woolpert summed it up this way:

"The big factor was we didn't contain the other four men. Chamberlain is no one-man team, there is no such thing. He hurts you on the boards, but the other four men hurt you worse."

THE TOWERING goal-getter was brilliant, as usual, getting 32 points and grabbing 11 rebounds. North Carolina's great Lennie Rosenbluth lived up to his press notices with a 31-point performance.

It is a game the nation's basketball fans have waited for all season. Kansas has been rated No. 2 most of the season with North Carolina, unbeaten now in 31 starts, has ranked at the top.

Coach Frank McGuire of North Carolina said the Michigan State tangle was "one of the toughest games we've played this season and we feel very lucky to have won it."

MICHIGAN STATE Coach Fred Anderson said, "I feel our team did the best job it could do. Fate just had it we weren't supposed to win this one. We had all kinds of opportunities, but so did North Carolina before it finally won it."

The tough North Carolina-Michigan State struggle was the second longest in NCAA playoff history. Canisius had to go four overtimes to beat North Carolina State, 79-78, in the first round at New York last year.

Deadlocked 29-29 at halftime, it was 58-58 at the finish of standard playing time, 64-64 after the first overtime and 66-66 after the second.

Kansas, which had expected a great battle with San Francisco, breezed through with little pressure.

Needles and Fabius Meet Again Today

HALLANDALE, Fla. AP — Needles and Fabius, arch rivals in the triple crown classics of 1956, renew their feud in the $100,000 added Gulfstream Park Handicap today but Bardstown, the leading handicap horse of the winter season, is expected to whip them both.

The dark bay gelding, who failed to get to the post as a two or three-year-old, has won the Tropical Handicap under 128 pounds, finished second to Summer Tan in the McLennan Handicap under 128 pounds, won the Widener Handicap under 126, and scored in the Appleton Handicap under 130.

Bardstown carried that same 130 pound impost in the Gulfstream and was the principal reason the Calumet entry was quoted at 3 to 5 in the mile and one-quarter race worth a total of $126,600 with seven starters.

Jockey Champ Bill Hartack will ride Bardstown while Eddie Arcazo had the mount on Fabius, who shoulders 123 pounds in a race to be telecast and broadcast nationally by CBS. Post time was about 4:50 p.m., EST.

NEW SWIM RECORD

HILVERSUM, The Netherlands AP — Four Dutch girl swimmers Friday night established a new European record for the 400-meter relay free style, clocking the event in four minutes, 23 seconds to break the 1952 Olympic record by one minute, 14 seconds.

Helping Hand?

NOT QUITE! That third arm and hand belong to an unseen opponent as Memphis State's Win Wilfong (22) goes up to shoot a basket in a National Invitational basketball tournament game against Utah in New York's Madison Square Garden. Memphis is winner 77-75. (International)

Pitchers Step Up Tempo In Spring Preps

(By UNITED PRESS)

Johnny Klippstein and Camilo Pascual became the first pitchers to go nine innings in Grapefruit League play today as the major league managers stepped up their hurlers' schedules with an eye on opening-day assignments.

Klippstein didn't walk a batter and yielded only seven hits to give the Cincinnati Redlegs a 2-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers Friday while Pascual struck out 10 and scattered nine hits Friday night in hurling the Washington Senators to a 7-2 triumph over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BOB BUHL of the Milwaukee Braves and Tom Sturdivant of the New York Yankees also came up with powerful performances which indicated they'll be ready, if called upon, for opening-day hurling duties.

Buhl allowed two runs and five hits in seven innings as the Braves scored a 4-3, 10-inning verdict over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Sturdivant walked only two and allowed three hits in six innings as the Yankees beat the Kansas City Athletics, 3-0.

Walt Moryn and Ed Wincieniak homered in the 11th inning to lift the Chicago Cubs to a 5-2 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles.

Rookie outfielder Harry Anderson drove in three runs with a homer in the first inning and knocked in the winning tally with a sacrifice fly in the eighth to provide the Philadelphia Phillies with a 4-3 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Giants, Indians Meet at Wrigley

LOS ANGELES. AP — The New York Giants and Cleveland Indians brought their exhibition game rivalry into Wrigley Field today for their second clash within two days.

The two major league teams opened their Southern California exhibition swing Friday night at San Diego, where the Giants topped the Indians, 8-4.

Ross, Sikes Meet in Senior Golf Finals

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. AP — Frank Ross of Hartford, Conn., met Leon Sikes of Palm Beach, Fla., today in the final of the American Seniors Golf Association championships.

Ross played near-par golf to defeat Herman Ryder, Nantucket, Mass., one-up, in Friday's semi-finals.

Celler to Press Anti-Trust Case Against Pro Baseball

NEW YORK. AP — Rep Emanuel Celler declared today that baseball "has made quite a concession" in admitting it is a business and dismissed the game's two main arguments for exemption from federal anti-trust laws as "pure unadulterated hokum."

"Baseball has certainly come full swing since the Danny Gardella case if it now concedes it is a business at all," said Celler (D-NY), who is chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. "In pleading the Gardella case before the Supreme Court, its main argument was it was not a business."

Celler then attacked the two main points made by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick after Friday's unprecedented meeting of the game's brass in Bellair, Fla. Frick called baseball a "unique industry" and said it believes "a statute subjecting professional baseball to anti-trust laws will injure baseball without any corresponding benefit to the public."

"Of course baseball is a unique industry," scoffed Celler. "So is the television industry... the garment industry... and the pretzel business. But does that mean they should all be outside the law of the land?"

"And this business of benefiting the public is just pure unadulterated hokum," Celler continued. "Major league club owners aren't trying to benefit the public. They're out to make money by moving players around like pawns and chattels."

Celler also argued that placing baseball under the anti-trust laws "wouldn't injure the game at all but would help it because it will attract more talent if the players know they can't be moved around like pawns."

De Luxe Park

Freda Garbutt entertained a few intimate friends and neighbors at a tea Thursday, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Grace Allen of Winnipeg, Canada, who is Freda's sister-in-law. Mrs. Allen has been visiting Freda for the past two months, and is leaving shortly for home.

Among those invited were Lou Ellis, Gertrude Mellius, Hilda Griffith, Lou Laursen, Mae Buffum, Jessie Adams, Katharine Stewart, Becky Ericson, Evelyn Cox, Inez Olrud, Mildred Lucas, Clara Wheeler, Mrs. Wilkes, Marie Newman and Gladys Kirkpatrick.

LOU ELLIS HOSTED a party last week, inviting friends of Christine McGill, who was a former resident of De Luxe.

Attending were Becky Ericson, Jessie Hernden, Saada Beck,

Christine Glidden, Mrs. Johnson, Jessie Adams, Mat Buffum, Dell Ferris, Ethel Nelson, Edith Shonek, Doris Harnden, Hazel Morrow, Evelyn Cox, Gladys Jones and Elizabeth Crismon.

HILDA AND FRANK Lent entertained a group of Bremeronians at a patio pot luck dinner Sunday, the occasion being a farewell for the Robert Heaths who were leaving for their home in Washington.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heath, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Schutt, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heacock, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Laursen and Mr. Mrs. Bob Porter.

A GROUP OF LADIES, whose husbands had gone to Colton Friday to tour the Kaiser Steel Mills, decided to surprise their husbands with a barbecue steak dinner up on their return.

Sixteen beautiful steaks were prepared for the broiler, potatoes baked, salad made, but no husbands. They decided to broil their own steaks and eat. Their husbands filed in — Alibi? It took 3 hours to make the tour.

Included were Ruth and "Chuck" Brisbin, Inez and Ed Olrud, Mr. and Mrs. Catts, Mr. and Mrs. Heacock, Lou and Vic Laursen, Ruth and Harry Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Everson, Maude Campbell, Dr. Mellius and the chef, Gertrude Mellius.

Ramon Trailer Park

IN ANOTHER group were the Ma Huddleston, Nellie Skiles, Zoe Kramer of Prairie Schooner and Aina Reed of Ramon.

Other guests were Mrs. Carl Bender of Sahara and Mrs. Dick Ellis and Mrs. Floyd Bender from Desert Hills Trailer Park, Frank Morton, Edie and Art Clark, "Billie Mae and Dorothy Murray of Sahara, Alice Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Desert Hills, Rowena Gutridge from Horizon Trailer Park, Persis and Hallie Hoyt, Blanche Stoll and Lyla Plumb from Ramon, and Dr. D. W. and Sarah Morris from Sahara. Mrs. Morris is president of the ladies club.

Among those seen at the affair were Midge Miller, Betty Grew and Maude Frost from Ramon and Cecelia Nisson and Isabel Seagrave and Margaret Gladden of Horizon, Ruth Sullivan of Sahara.

The Fashion Show was an outstanding event of the season. Three hundred residents and visitors attended, many of whom came early and brought picnic lunches with them. Tables were set on the pool patio and coffee or tea was served by the ladies of the clubhouse committee.

Gentlemen were urged to attend also and they came in goodly number; some of them were observed snapping pictures of the lovely models. Capable and at-

SPARKLING SEASHELLS draw the interest of Mrs. Doris Fleming, right, at a colorful display created by Jean Olson for the big Tramview Trailer Park show. Other display tables feature belts and der feed with three other couples in their caravan. Mrs. Maskell also put up six jars of freshly caught lobster.

Mrs. Emma Parks welcomed her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Claud C. Clark, visiting from Portland, Ore.

Mrs. John Lyon, wife of the dean of law school at the University of Arizona, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Label Ericson.

The B. A. Hoffmans returned from a visit to their home in Pasco, Washington. They said that Sahara Park looked more beautiful than ever.

Mrs. Beth Holt has been enjoying a visit with her houseguests, Mrs. Charles Rainey, Mrs. Lauren Appleford and Mrs. William Belford, all of Fallbrook, and Miss Dorothy Petty of Los Angeles. Dr. Frank W. Chambers of Los Angeles joined them for a day.

And Mrs. Florence Clarke, Mrs. Dorothy Murray, Mrs. Evelyn Murphy, Mrs. Cynthia Landreth, Mrs. Mae Becher, Mrs. Helen Child, Mrs. Ruth Sullivan, Mrs. Genevieve Berg, Mrs. Florence Bleazard, Mrs. Helen Miller, Mrs. Edie Clark, Mrs. Ruth Miller, Mrs. Bubbles Morris, Mrs. Midge Miller, Mrs. Virginia Mitchell, Mrs. Ada Bailey and Mrs. Maud McIntyre.

What a busy week this has been for Tramview Trailer Park. Over 300 guests attended the annual Hobby Show.

The Annual Hobby Show was held, with many different kinds of hobbies exhibited — cut and polished stones, woodwork, hand sewing, hand made rugs; and of course, the displays of copper enamel, pine needle and shellcraft hobby classes.

The Camera Club showed moving pictures and slides all during the afternoon.

Claudia Dohrmann presided at the tea table serving cookies and punch.

THE SHELLCRAFT Class had a birthday dinner Tuesday, honoring their teacher, Mildred Ward. Sixty-two were present, including the class members and their husbands.

Thursday the Pineneedle Class had cake and ice-cream for Cecil Doe, their teacher. The Does are leaving shortly for North Dakota.

Thursday evening the regular monthly Potluck dinner was held. The ladies of Sunset and Tamarisk streets were the hostesses, and dinner was served to 140 guests.

TUESDAY TRAMVIEW played their last scheduled game of the Interpark Shuffleboard Tournament series with Horizon. Tramview lost, and congratulations to Horizon.

The Hemes and Davis' have both returned after an absence from the Park.

The Bowns of Seattle are new arrivals. They have just purchased a new 35 foot "Hanson" trailer.

Rancho Park, B-45, returned home this week after "baby sitting" with the grandchildren during his daughter's illness.

Jack and Olive Conaway, D-19, were seen checking their fishing tackle over and talking of the "big one" that got away last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crowley have repurchased their old "home-stead", D-57. They recently returned from a year's tour of Europe.

MRS. FRED FIDLER, D-41, returned home Saturday. She is recovering nicely and all her friends are very happy to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn, B-26, entertained friends, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blauw of Kansas City, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heyer D-60, are taking a leisurely trip to Memphis during the next two months.

Frank and Florence Lever are returning to Rancho having purchased the ramada and trailer on D-1.

Ben Cole entertained the Camera Club Sunday evening with pictures of the Northwest.

Cathedral City CofC to Elect Officers Tuesday

Cathedral City residents were today urged to attend the annual election of the board of directors for the city's Chamber of Commerce at Town Hall Tuesday.

Fifteen candidates were listed for the 10 board seats. Election time is 7:30 p. m.

Directors will serve a two-year term, one half being elected each year.

Candidates are Sam Arner, Paul Brown, Claude Cobb, John Down, Merle Hancock, Herbert Henry, Jack Hicks, Robert A. Hillery, Robert Hollister, Robert Irvine, Berton Lamb, L. C. Lewis, Robert Sherrill, Don Veitch and Orvil F. Zappe.

Felix and The Martiniques Prove Popular

Felix and the Martiniques featuring Sue Stanley, who for years were the most popular entertainers in Palm Springs, have gone up fast in the entertainment world in the last few years and are now the featured entertainers at the new Beverly Hilton's Star On the Roof room in Beverly Hills.

They are very popular with their famous calypsos and most every Latin beat, plus their great dance tempos.

Library Notes for Young Readers, Their Parents Given

By GERRY VANEK

Gray Burro was a stray burro in the picturesque land of Ecuador. He was born in what seemed to be a land of bananas. One day he decided he wanted something—something more than bananas. And that was the start of the long journey that gave Ann Nolan Clark the title for her book, and Gray Burro a new name: LOOK-ING-FOR-SOMETHING!

Leo Politi's colorful, double-page paintings make us feel as though we're right there, every step of the way, with the wistful burro. The author's short, poetic sentences (which read with a feeling of free verse) maintain the melodic, meandering mood.

LOOKING FOR something took a boat journey on the river, but he didn't like that very much. Even the chocolate city (which was full of delectably fragrant cocoa beans) soon left him with a lonely feeling that made him move on. Up the hairpin twists and curves of a narrow mountain road he went to a gold mine, but the towering peaks made him feel too small, and he was cold, too.

But he stayed and carried bags of gold dust on his back until he heard a man call him "just another stray burro who didn't belong to anyone." Then he knew that this was not the place he was looking for, and he just kept walking until he reached Quito, the capital of Ecuador, where he chatted with the President.

HIS NEXT JAUNT was to the wild Indian country, where a stray burro from an Indian's blowgun sent him running (not walking) from that place! Now, usually, when the little burro felt like moving on, he just followed his twitching ears. But one day, after he was safely out of the wild Indian country, his ears didn't lean backwards, or forwards, or to the right, or to the left. They just stood straight up, and he didn't know which direction to go. So he just stood there. And there he stayed until he was found by the very something he had been looking for all the time!

Mr. Popper was just an ordinary house painter and decorator, but he had an extra-ordinary interest in all things Arctic and Antarctic!

Thanks to the famous explorer, Admiral Drake, he received the very gift that would make him happiest! Richard and Florence Atwater (with the help of Robert Lawson's vivid illustrations) tell us the tantalizing tale of MR. POPPER'S PENGUINS. Captain Cook was the name Mr. Popper gave his penguin.

THE "CAPTAIN" took up residence in the Popper refrigerator, went for walks on a clothesline leash, caused quite a commotion in the barbershop, and was even written up in the local newspaper. When Greta (a lady penguin in a nearby aquarium) became ill, and Captain Cook was feeling pretty poorly himself, Mr. Popper found himself owning two penguins instead of one.

And the diagnosis proved to be correct — loneliness for another penguin was all that had been ailing Captain Cook and Greta. They were far from lonely by the time they had 10 little penguins of their own; Columbus, Ferdinand, Isabella, Nelson, and Magellan were some of the names picked for the little penguins by Mr. Popper; the names certainly reflected his fondness for explorers.

THE POPPERS were most cooperative—always thinking of the penguins' comforts first. Open windows with the snow drifts piling in meant hats and overcoats in the house for all the Poppers, but Greta and her Captain felt right at home sliding across the ice on the living room floor. However, when all the snow had melted into slush, Mrs. Popper (who had always prided herself on her neat-as-a-pin housekeeping) tactfully suggested that the penguins might be happier in the cellar. So down they went.

And how they loved tobogganing down the cellar stairs; it was noisy, but fun! Mr. Popper bought them a freezing plant, and even dug a hole to make a swimming and diving place in which they could frolic. All this expense, plus the cost of the fresh and frozen fish they consumed (12 penguins take a lot of fish), was coming to a pretty penny.

THESE FINANCIAL problems were solved by the penguins themselves. Theatrical contracts and movie offers flowed in for "Popper's Performing Penguins." They even managed, with the help of Admiral Drake, to make Mr. Popper popped off to . . . can you guess where?

Well, you've sashayed from SOUTH of the Border to the SOUTH Pole. Now how about scooting down to 1146 SOUTH Palm Canyon Drive to the Branch Library for Story Hour some Wednesday afternoon, you-all?

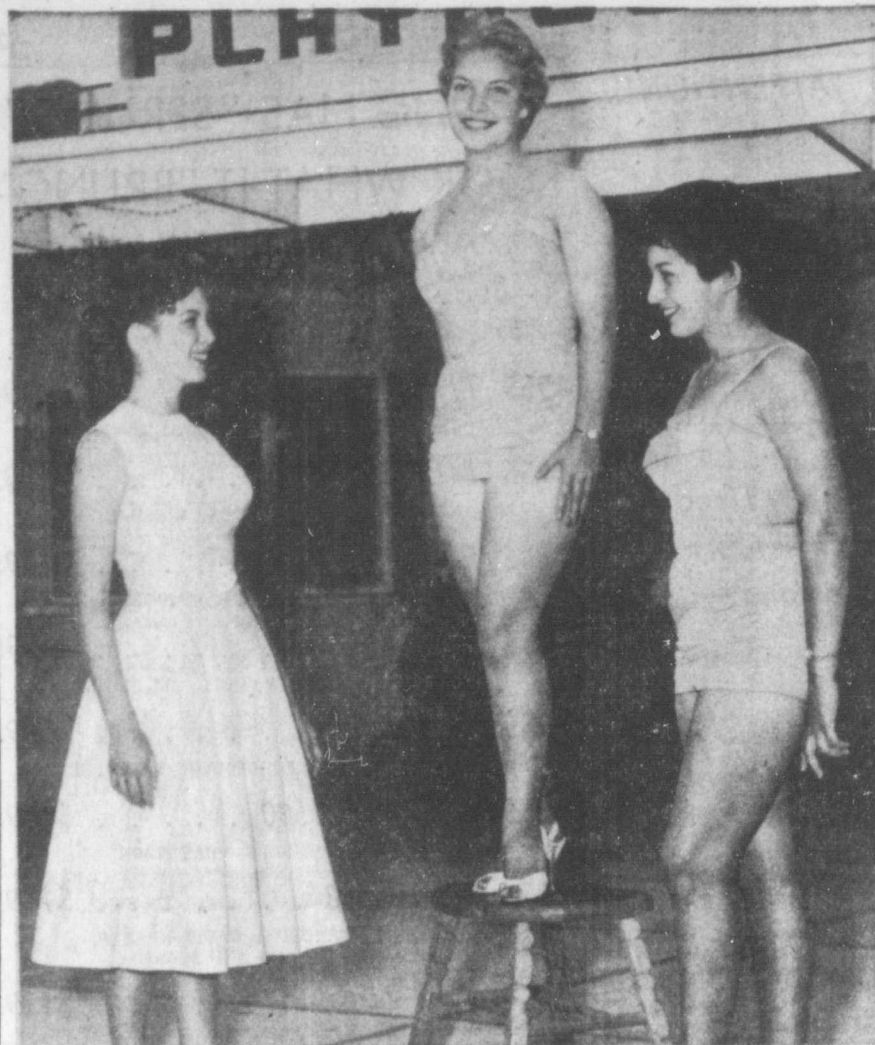

Light Dimming Required by Law, CHP Warns

Drivers who fail to dim their car headlights for other drivers as required by law are a menace on the highways, according to the California Highway Patrol.

"The law requires that when a driver approaches within 50 feet of an oncoming vehicle, he shall use a distribution of light so aimed that the glaring rays are not projected into the eyes of the oncoming driver," stated Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This also applies to traffic on divided highways."

"In addition to this requirement it is necessary for the driver of a vehicle following within 200 feet of another vehicle to use the low beam distribution of light," Caldwell warned. "Courteous drivers will always dim the headlights when meeting or following another vehicle."

"The Patrol asks every driver to be more courteous in the use of headlights," he concluded. "Cooperate and help assure safety for yourself and the drivers you meet or follow in the darkness."

Councils of City, Indians to Meet Monday Noon

The city council will hold a joint meeting with the Agua Caliente Indian Council at the El Mirador Hotel at a noon luncheon Monday, and one of the many topics scheduled for discussion will be plans for the Palm Springs municipal airport.

Earlier this week, the new lessees of the airport met with City Manager R. W. Peterson to discuss their plans for the future development there.

ASIDE FROM expressing their desire to construct a new terminal building and to follow along with the proposed plan of the City of Palm Springs for the ultimate rebuilding of the traffic center, they explained their desire to construct a 10,000 square foot building on land leased from the city, in which they propose putting an electronic business.

The business, which employs assemblers and technical personnel in the field of electronics, work for 200 to 300 persons the year round.

THE MASTER PLAN, which was drawn up by airport consultants Leigh Fisher and Associates, is currently before the Palm Springs Planning Commission.

Aero Palm Springs, which is a leasing corporation of the airport, is now run by the base operators of the San Francisco and Oakland airports. The officers include Louis Benoist, president; Ed Gough, vice president; Fred McN. Butler, secretary; and Harold T. Hansen, treasurer. Mac Haskell is airport manager.
